

CAROLE WEINSTOCK
"The Clutter Angel"

Invest in your well being.

Focus on what is important to you instead of focusing on your "stuff."

"Beyond her organizational skills, she has been helpful in suggesting storage solutions and procuring needed materials. Throughout she has been nonjudgemental, eager in her work, friendly and unfailingly cheerful."

- Carol
(PRINCETON, NJ)

★ Organizational Challenges

People have a lack of knowing how and where to start the process of organizing their space. It actually is an entire process and not a one-time fix. It in fact requires skills; skills that can be taught and learned. You can gain motivation to do it on your own. Most people need support making decisions with their possessions. Usually clarity is missing and a vision is unclear.

"Having a clutter-free house takes loads of stress off and the de-cluttering itself was a huge stress reliever! I'm very lucky that because of my schedule I was able to dedicate the time to really make it happen. But that's where you come in for people who don't have the time."

"I could only walk 2 feet into a 10'x10' room before Carole came. After working a short 5 hours with Carole, I could walk everywhere... Not everyone can fix things with skill, ease, and efficiently. She's really good at what she does! Organizing is intuitive to her. Her skill is combined with her motivating personality. Carole is not only a body double, but a coach in living space transformation. She is good at identifying, keeping in mind, and capitalizing on her client's strengths. You may be messy, but you're not useless."

★ Life Transitions

★ DOWNSIZING

Are You Saving Things of No Use?

Eliminating the clutter is another way to maximize your space and a great way to downsize.

I help you sort, eliminate or donate and then organize your things. This can improve the overall appearance and marketability of your home. It becomes a faster process for moving when you are ready to sell!

★ REMODELING

Can't Afford to Move? Need More Space?

Remodeling can be a hassle if disorganized. I will help you with every part of the process from organizing and packing up the space prior to the project and organizing and/or designing a functional space after the job is completed. I also provide preparation and assistance prior to/after professional closet system installations.

★ SELLING & MOVING

Are You Embarrassed to Let Anyone into Your Home?

Selling and moving can be a lot of work. Here is how I can turn it into a smooth and successful transition for you:

★ MAXIMIZE SPACE TO IMPROVE MARKETABILITY

★ ORGANIZING FOR THE MOVER & PACKING

★ SETTLING INTO A NEW PLACE

Don't Know How or Where to Begin?

As the mover is unloading your boxes, I am unpacking those boxes and setting up essentials such as the bathrooms, kitchen cabinets, or the entire living space.
